Unprecedented rains in July – August, 2022 and consequential water accumulation is causing flooding in large part of the Province. After effects of rain will continue till dewatering process is complete and displaced population returns to their normal dwellings. The rain and domino effects of disaster are active in 22 districts of the province.

Various generous segments of the society are helping people in need, besides government's efforts. The Government of Sindh warmly welcomes and appreciate the efforts of all organization and individuals engaged in relief and response process and assures all possible administrative support during execution of activities. In order to make relief process smooth, result oriented and equitable, it is important that efforts of all stakeholders engaged in relief process are systematic and well-coordinated.

In order to streamline the process, to avoid duplication of efforts and to reach all affectees, it is necessary to channelize relief efforts through central provincial platform. The centrally coordinated efforts will optimize the benefits of affectees.

At this stage of disaster some highly needed relief items / efforts are;

| | |
|---|---|
| 1. Support in relief camps established by Government by providing required relief (food, drinking water, volunteer for camp management and other camp related facilities) | 9. Infant formula milk, bottles, diapers |
| 2. Establishment of relief camps | 10. Feminine items |
| 3. Shelters (tents / tarpaulin sheets) | 11. Cloths (ladies, girls, children and gents) |
| 4. Cooked food | 12. Shoes (ladies, girls, children and gents) |
| 5. Clean drinking water | 13. Foldable beds (charpai) |
| 6. Provision of dry edible items like biscuits, baked channa and alike items | 14. Mosquito nets (both for humans and livestock) |
| 7. Mosquito spray | 15. Anti-mosquito lotions |
| 8. Soap | 18. Towels |

All organizations / individuals working or willing to work on relief activities are requested to align their activities in line with essential items /activities as mentioned above, so that with collective and harmonized efforts, effected population of the Province can be brought back to normal.
